

Investor Relations Section Migrates to New Company Website www.expert.ai

Modena, December 11, 2020

Expert.ai today announced that the company's Investor Relations (IR) website will now be permanently located at www.expert.ai. This follows the launch of the company's new brand, logo and website, announced on October 5, 2020 and the closing of the domain www.expertsystem.com on December 14, 2020. The IR section of the new website contains all the information as required by article 26 of the AIM Issuers' Regulations.

At this link <https://www.expert.ai/investor-relations/> you can find the financial highlights, in particular the section contains all the information related to the requirements of the regulation of AIM Italia, the documents useful for investors to know expert.ai and stay constantly informed about financial communications.

The new Investor Relations section will contain all current and historical financial information, including earnings, announcements and any financial communications on the company as required by AIM Italia.

Expert System rebranding project to expert.ai is aligned with the company's strategic "Path to Lead" 2020-2024 plan, which aims to accelerate global growth and capitalize on the growing market of artificial intelligence.

This press release is available on the Company's website www.expertsystem.com and at www.emarketstorage.com
